OUTLOOK

Returning Lettermen

Leading the returnees are veteran forwards Brian Taylor and Gilles Hébert. Taylor ended last season as the Stinger's leading scorer with 38 goals and 33 assists. Other outstanding forwards include, former Toronto Marlies centre Brad Hood, and sophomores Randy Edmonds, Mark Kosturik, Frankie Morris, Bert Gow and Kevin McGovern. Morris was granted a Hockey Canada Scholarship because of his outstanding play in last year's National Championships. On defense the Stingers will have sophomores Mark Odrowski, Marc Lalonde, Alain Boudreau and Bill Patterson, and in goal All-Star Stephane Héon and backup, Randy Duncan are returning.

Lettermen Lost

The Stingers have graduated 8 Lettermen, including Co-captain and star forward John Sliskovic, and MVP Defenseman Mike Walker. Also lost through graduation are defensemen Derek Watt and Ron Stoneburgh, forwards Kevin Murphy, Kelly Kavic and Paul Bedard.

Newcomers

The Stingers have recruited heavily to replace the outstanding lettermen lost. Up front, a host of forwards will vie for starting positions including Ottawa Senators winger Brent Cater, centre Bill Hummel from North Bay, Doug Brown, Dave Ferguson and Anders Danielsson from the Thunder Bay Juniors, and former Bishop's leading scorer, Greg Thompson. On defense the Stingers have recruited former Belleville Bulls standout, Steve Slaughter and Tim Humberstone from the Kingston Voyageurs along with several others. In goal, Sudbury's Bruce McDougal, West Island Royal Star Tony Guerrero and Laval transfer Kirk Williamson will fight for a starting position alongside all-star Héon.

Outlook

The Stingers once again will be strong, but the loss of eight veterans will make them an inexperienced team. The return of veterans Brian Taylor, Stephane Héon, Gilles Hébert, Brad Hood and ten good sophomores from last year's National finalists should help the Stingers maintain their high ranking of previous years. Offensively, the Stingers should be strong, but the loss of the experienced players, including top defensive forward John Sliskovic and defensemen Watt and Walker, will mean that goaltender Stephane Héon will be hard pressed to maintain his 3.04 goals-against average from last season. The addition of several new defensemen and some strong defensive forwards, along with good back-up goaltending, is essential for Concordia to emerge once again as Quebec Champions and National contenders.
